The Eagles have lost three straight games in which they held fourth-quarter leads, and the only good news for Eagles fans is that at least someone in the room is embarrassed about it. "The biggest thing we're missing in here is the attitude, authentic nhl jersey," Jenkins said. "There's not that fire, nfl eagles jersey, that mental toughness that makes you think you're going to make it happen. And we've got to get that. At some point, the man in you has to come out." But after the third straight game in which a defense in which so much was invested has given away a lead, it's fair to wonder if that will happen at any point this season for the Eagles. They can sit there and claim their errors are correctable, but I'm not sure they're right. Is Jeremy Maclin going to start taking care of the ball better when he runs? Are the Eagles' defensive backs going to start using their arms to actually wrap up ball carriers and bring them to the ground? Are the linebackers going to get faster and more alert? Are the coaches going to figure out that, nhl jersey database, just because you're inside the five-yard line you're not automatically in the end zone yet? And even if one or two of those things happen, boston university hockey jersey, will all of them get fixed? The issues with this Eagles team run deep and fundamental. They don't tackle well. They don't grind out extra yards under tough circumstances. They don't beat up the other team physically. They can make big, nfl jersey contract, showy plays, sure. Their quarterback and their receivers and their pass-rushers are all capable of making you hop out of your seat with excitement. But the Eagles aren't big on the kind of solid, boring football plays that win games when you stack them all on top of each other -- especially once you have a big lead. "You can't sit on leads," Eagles coach Andy Reid said. "You can't do that as a football team. That's what I did with our team here, and we lost the game." [+]
EnlargeAP Photo/Julio Cortez Coach Andy Reid and the Eagles are now 1-3 overall after losing 24-23 to the 49ers. This is a big part of Reid's act -- sitting there after the game and owning up to the loss. Sometimes, it's as if he's reading off a script. But <https://www.cheapjerseys0086.com/> after a while, it starts to ring hollow -- as if he's saying this stuff because he knows it's part of the head coach's job to say it. Fact is, nfl womens jerseys, he's not the one missing tackles or fumbling or failing to pick up a blitzing linebacker. He should not be free from blame, of course, but the Eagles' problems are far more basic than schemes or play calls. The Eagles, for all of the dazzling talent they have on both sides of the ball, don't play football very well. And I'm not sure that's something the Eagles' coaching staff, for all of its own considerable talent, nfl store, can fix in 12 weeks. "Right now, we all hurt," said embattled rookie defensive coordinator Juan Castillo, new nfl jerseys 2012, the current target of a significant part of Eagles fans' significant scorn. "But we've been in this situation before. We have a plan, hockey jersey database, and we'll stay with our play, and if we do that, we'll turn it around. We always have." Eh, sort of. There are a handful of examples, nfl jerseys for 2012, hockey jersey, in the Reid era, of the Eagles starting slowly and recovering. They were 2-3 in 2008 and finished 9-6-1. They were 1-3 in 2007 and finished 8-8. And they were 0-2 in 2003 and finished 12-4. But the problem here is that the Eagles' coaching staff doesn't - and can't -- know what kind of men it has in the locker room. They can't know if it'll get better because this group hasn't played together, university of michigan hockey jersey, new nike nfl jerseys, doesn't have anything in the bank that proves it can handle adversity and get back on its feet. We don't know if Nnamdi Asomugha can handle the pressure of this opportunity and start making tackles. "There's a lot of talented teams around the league that never win, and it's because they don't learn how to play the game as a team," Jenkins said. Jenkins says it can happen -- that he saw his Packers team go through that transformation and toughen up because the players in the locker room got sick of losing games they should have won. The question with this Eagles team is whether enough of the players will get sick of it, and whether that'll happen in time to save this very important Eagles season. "It's not good," Asomugha said. "It's not good right now." But the question is whether things are bad enough, fdny hockey jersey, or embarrassing enough, cheap nfl authentic jerseys, to motivate the Eagles to do better. With 12 games to go and the division clearly still winnable, the Eagles will have a chance to turn things around. They clearly have the talent to do it. Right now, it's a matter of how badly they want to. "There's got to be a point where people step up and say, team usa hockey jersey, 'We're going to play a full four quarters, nfl saints jersey, ' " Jenkins said. "It's like people in here don't have a sense of urgency. That killer mentality: Some people have it and others don't, and we've got to get it." Unfortunately, that's not something you can go out and sign on the free-agent market. Or else the Eagles surely would have tried. Breakdown: The misery that Washington Redskins fans suffered through last season has resulted in the predictable reward for this coming season: a notably soft schedule. Washington will meet just two non-divisional opponents who had winning records in 2010 (the New York Jets and New England Patriots). They'll also meet one divisional rival, the Philadelphia Eagles, nike hockey jersey, after their bye week and another at home in the season-opener, nfl customized jersey, the New York Giants. What also helps is a schedule that includes six teams that have questions at quarterback for the coming season. Of course, new nike nfl jerseys, design a football jersey, the Redskins don't know what they're doing at that position just yet (and yes, the entire Donovan McNabb fiasco still baffles me). But if head coach Mike Shanahan is going to put his team on a positive path, these are the kind of advantages that will help the cause. Complaint department: Whatever hopes the Redskins have for an improvement over last year's woes might vanish in the final five weeks of the season. It's bad enough that they'll see the Jets and the Patriots in the first two weeks of December. But road games against the Giants and Philadelphia (in the season finale) aren't going to be easy, virginia tech football jersey, either. At least the Minnesota Vikings are in town for Christmas Eve. That's the only decent matchup the Redskins will see during the holiday season. It's about time: There's always plenty of reasons to tune in for a Cowboys-Redskins game. On Sept. 26 -- when Washington travels to Dallas for a "Monday Night Football" contest -- there will be another storyline: Whether the Redskins actually can win in the palatial stadium Jerry Jones built two years ago. Washington is 0-2 in that building and this would be a great time to change their fortunes.
